

Dash Data Protection Policy

Dash is a mobile money service provided by Telecom Equipment Pte Ltd (“TEPL”). Remittance services in Dash is provided by SingCash Pte Ltd (“SingCash”).

This Dash Data Protection Policy is effective from 28 June 2018. Updated on 28 June 2018

Respecting your privacy and protecting your personal data

TEPL/SingCash collects information to understand your needs better. This helps us to improve our services and the way we communicate with you.

We know that privacy is important to you and we strive to be as open and transparent as possible in how we serve you.

We conduct our business in compliance with the Personal Data Protection Act (the “PDPA”) and have implemented additional measures to protect your personal information.

This Policy aims to help you understand how we collect, use, share and protect your personal information.

Ways we collect your personal information

We may collect your personal information when you:

- Register for Dash products and services or Remittance services
- Sign up for alerts or newsletters
- Contact us with a question or request for help
- Participate in any rewards and promotions or surveys
- Visit the Dash website
- Download, use and update Dash mobile applications

The information we collect

The information we collect depends on the products and services you use and register for. Here are key examples:

- Your identity – This includes: NRIC or FIN number, name, address, telephone number, email address, date of birth, as well as service-related information such as bank and credit card details, device ID and IP address.
- Your interaction with us – For example, a note or recording of a call you make to 1800- GET-DASH, an email or letter you send to us or other records of any contact you have with us.
- Your account information – For example, the subscription services you use or other details related to your account.

- Information on your use of our services – For example, the peers and merchants you pay money to and receive money from and vice versa, as well as the amount, date and time of the transactions made.
- Your preferences – This is based on what you share with us on how you would like to be contacted, and your preferred products, services and lifestyle activities for example.
- Information from other organisations – These organisations can include business partners with whom we are working with on Dash promotions (“Dash Preferred Partners”), fraud-prevention agencies, business directories, credit reference agencies or individuals we believe you have authorised to provide your personal details on your behalf.
- Information relating to use of the Dash application – These information facilitates our provision to you of the services through the Dash applications where necessary. For example, access to location services to find merchants around you for your payments or deals, contact information (for peer to peer services), system tools, device ID and call information for security and verification purposes, access to selected media, photos and files designated by you relating to your profile or Dash transactions, Wifi connection and network communication (including NFC) information to allow use of Dash services.
